consulted Chris Grant, John Miller, Chris Kelley, Hunter Lonsberry, Scott Belevue, Hai Tran, Tommy Chin and John Peng about if/else statement in the ammended claim limitations. Various suggestions were made as to whether the if/else statement could be treated as an "or" limitation, where half of the conditional statement could be ignored. The suggestion made by QAS's Tommy Chin and John Peng was that all of the limitation in the conditional if/else statement must be given weight and be considered in order to properly reject the claim. The examiner interpreted the claims in accordance with the QAS's suggestions.
